EARLY GRADUATION PERMISSION FORM

EARLY GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

- Meet all State and TCHS graduation requirements.
  - Complete all the TCHS academic graduation requirements.
  - Take the required State testing (SAT).
  - Complete the FAFSA or FAFSA non-completion form.
- Turn in this form to the counseling office after it is signed by a parent/guardian as written permission to graduate early.

EARLY GRADUATION PROCEDURES

- Early graduates are allowed to attend school functions in the spring semester (including prom).
- Due to IHSA rules, early graduates are no longer eligible to participate in extra-curricular activities during the spring semester (i.e. athletics, band, chorus, drama, prom court, etc.).
- Early graduates should request to have their final transcripts sent before they graduate. Final transcripts are typically available mid-January after students are no longer in attendance.
- Early graduates will need to order their graduation cap/gown in the spring.
- Early graduates must attend the graduation practice in May in order to participate in the graduation ceremony.
